FLIGHT

This tour has been sold in accordance with the current international IATA rules.

Unitas Rejser acts as an agent for the airline and is therefore only the intermediary between the airline and the customer. Unitas Rejser does not sell airline tickets under its own name, and thus only collects the payment for the purchased airline tickets on behalf of the airline. The airline is the customer's contracting party, and it is therefore the airline that is responsible for the correct implementation of the transport agreement. Unitas Rejser is only the intermediary of the transport service, and as a result, Unitas Rejser is not responsible for delays, cancellations, the airline's bankruptcy, other breach or non-fulfillment of the transport agreement, entered into between the customer and the airline.

Unitas Rejser acts as an agent, which means that the airline alone is responsible to carry out the transport agreement.

The tickets are non-refundable. Furthermore, it is not possible to change the route, the departure time or date, names, airline etc. unless otherwise stated.

We kindly ask you to make sure that the names on the travel plan is exactly the same as the names on the Passports and that the travel times match the flight tickets.

The journey is not covered by the Package Travel Act. We would like to draw your attention to the fact that you are responsible for ensuring that all travel documents and vaccinations are in order. This applies to visas (including transit visas), the validity of the passport and the content of stamps. We also ask that you check that the name on the itinerary matches the name in the passport, and that travel times correspond to the airline tickets.
