Residents fear airstrikes after military loses control of Kawlin town, Sagaing region

DETAILS

MAP

Local sources indicated that residents feared airstrikes targeting Kawlin town in Sagaing region since the town was reportedly taken by a coalition of anti-military forces, including the in-exile National Unity Government's People's Defense Forces, on 6 November where at least five people were killed, several others injured, tens of thousands displaced and hundreds more trapped due to armed clashes with the military.

Effective dates

Now 06 Nov 2023 until 08 Nov 2023

ADVICE

Defer non-essential travel to Myanmar. Seek shelter during armed clashes.
