

General Conditions for 'flight only'

Unitas Reiser acts as an agent for the airline and is therefore only the intermediary between the airline and the customer. Unitas Reiser does not sell airline tickets under its own name, and thus only collects the payment for the purchased airline tickets on behalf of the airline.

The airline is the customer's contracting party, and it is therefore the airline that is responsible for the correct implementation of the transport agreement. Unitas Reiser is only the intermediary of the transport service, and as a result, Unitas Reiser is not responsible for delays, cancellations, the airline's bankruptcy, other breach or non-fulfillment of the transport agreement, entered into between the customer and the airline.

This trip is 'flight only' and reference is made to the Warsaw Convention and EU Regulation 261-04. The journey is not covered by the Package Travel Act.

We would like to draw your attention to the fact that you are responsible for ensuring that all travel documents and vaccinations are in order. This applies to visas (including transit visas), the validity of the passport and the content of stamps.

We also ask that you check that the name on the itinerary matches the name in the passport, and that travel times correspond to the airline tickets. Unitas Reiser should be contacted immediately in case of disagreements.

Several countries require that one's passport be valid for at least 6 months after your return travel date.

A minor travelling without a parent or guardian may be refused entry into certain countries. Some countries do not allow minors to enter unless accompanied by their parent or guardian, or without a written statement that the minor may travel alone or in the company of a named adult. If you are in doubt about travel formalities, please contact the relevant authorities, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (www.regjeringen.no/UD) or Unitas Reiser. Visa forms are available at the relevant embassy.

Payment for the trip can be made by credit or debit card, or bank transfer and with payment you confirm that the information on the invoice is correct and that you accept our terms and conditions. Once payment is registered, tickets are issued and sent.

If you have not received travel documents 10 days prior to your departure, please contact Unitas Reiser.

Prices, rates, taxes, fees and rules on tickets are subject to change from the time of booking until the ticket is issued. Therefore, fares are only confirmed at ticket issuance.

Tickets are non-refundable. Nor can changes be made to route, departure dates, names, airline, etc.

Be aware that there may be departure taxes that must be paid locally.

The rules for importing animal products into the EU, according to Commission Regulation (EU) no. 206 from 2009, appear in Annex IIIa, IIIb and IV at https://food.ec.europa.eu/animals/animal-products-movements/personal-imports\_en.

We recommend that you take out cancellation insurance, in case of illness (must be taken out when booking the trip) and travel insurance through Unitas Reiser Gouda avbestillingsforsikring

The minimum cancellation fee, after ticket issuance, is the deposit paid. For special ticket types, the full amount can be withheld as a cancellation fee.

This trip is sold in accordance with the current international IATA rules.

If the customer wishes to change or cancel their journey, Unitas Reiser must be contacted.

In the event of a complaint, the contracting airline must be contacted, but Unitas Reiser is happy to assist with contact information.

During the actual journey, the airline must be contacted.

In some cases, it is possible to change or cancel the ticket against a fee. Your travel consultant can assist you with this.

Foreign nationals, including those with a Norwegian Refugee or foreign passport, are encouraged to seek information at an embassy or consulate for the country they wish to visit.

Special scheme for travel agencies regarding sales tax. Travel agencies are subject to the 'Special Scheme for Travel Agencies regarding Sales Tax', which means that sales tax may not be specified separately, and that sales tax cannot be deducted.
